TENTATIVE AGENDA STATE ADMINISTRATION AND VETERANS' AFFAIRS INTERIM COMMITTEE

November 28 and 29, 2006 Room 152, State Capitol

Tuesday, November 28

All Times Tentative

- 8:30 Call meeting to order; roll call: Sen. Joe Tropila, Presiding Officer
- 8:32 Review and approve minutes from May 12, 2006 and June 22, 2006 meetings
- 8:35 Public comment: At this time, the public may address the Committee on any issue within the Committee's jurisdiction and within time allowed by the Chairman. Written comments from individuals testifying are recommended and appreciated.
- 8:45 Legislative proposal from the American Legion: Col. Jim Jacobson (US Army, Ret.), Legislative Chairman, Montana American Legion
- 9:00 Review and make recommendations on draft legislation affecting any of the state's public employee retirement systems: Committee members

This agenda item is the primary reason for this meeting being held. However, there is no practical way to estimate the amount of time the Committee will invest in reviewing any of the proposals for retirement system-related legislation. The Committee will periodically take breaks at the chairman's or committee's discretion, recess for lunch at an appropriate time, and adjourn at a time determined by the chairman and committee members.

TBD Public comment on issues within the purview of the Committee

TBD Adjournment: The Chairman will determine the appropriate time to adjourn. It is anticipated that the Committee will work all day on Tuesday, November 28. If the Committee completes its business, it will adjourn. If committee business remains at the end of the day, they will Reconvene at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, November 29 to complete business.

TBD Other Committee business
